Monthly Reports

Chief Spanier states that the numbers are typical for month. Ms. Nelson states we had one big event the robbery at Zip Foods. We got one of the suspects had to let the other one go working on more evidence. John Lane did a wonderful job on that.

Old Business-General Order 31- Ms. Nelson is looking for a motion approve and adopt the General Order 31 as presented by Chief Spanier effective date June 19, 2017. Mr. Lynk made the motion to accept and adopt General Order 31, Ms. Pisowicz seconded.

Motion passed 3-0

New Business-Promotion

Chief Spanier would like to promote John Lane to Captain. He did a great job in the detective bureau, and would like to keep him there, but our building was falling apart between radio, software, and computer problems. He now has everything back together. He has also pulled a couple of tough cases and has done a great job. Chief Spanier would basically like to reward him for all he does. Chief Spanier would also like for the Commission in their motion to wave the testing process. Ms. Nelson would like to entertain that motion to promote and wave the testing process.

Ms. Pisowicz made the motion to promote John Lane to Captain and to wave the testing process, Mr. Lynk seconded motion.

Motion passed 3-0
