

PORTER METROPOLITAN POLICE COMMISSION
Minutes

May 19, 2015

The Porter Police Commission was called to order at 6 p.m. In attendance were Karen Pisowicz, President; Mark Lynk, Vice-President; Dave Silverthorn, Commissioner and Police Chief Jamie Spanier. Liaison Elke Nelson was absent.

Lynk made a motion to approve the April 21, 2015 minutes. Silverthorn seconded. Motion carried 3-0.

During Monthly reports, Chief Spanier noted that Detective Veal is working really hard on case after case and that Chesterton has been helping out. This is working real good. Pisowicz mentioned the mileage looks good.

Under Old Business, the lawyer said a theft from auto ordinance is against the law and won't work. Regarding Officer Komisarcik, she hasn't moved yet so this issue will be put on next agenda.

There was no New Business.

Under Public Comments, J. Klug, 200 Franklin St. said maybe there could be publicity regarding guns. This was agreed wouldn't be done.

Spanier stated that Det. Veal gave his official retirement date in February 2016.

Meeting adjourned 6:19 p.m.

Respectfully submitted

Rita Newman, secretary
